FOREWORD

AEEI Investments Limited is a prominent World Economic Forum Community of Global Growth Company (a New Champion) and is recognised within South Africa as one of the top Black Investment Corporate companies. AEEI has built an excellent reputation around the world through its business practices, innovation and reliability, and has engaged with a number of partners both in Africa and globally.

AEEI's commitment to sound values and the highest ethics has ensured that the company remains at the forefront of investor confidence and Black Economic Empowerment (BEE). The code of conduct is a guideline for all AEEI business units, and its partners, in any consortium that AEEI participates in. The code of conduct provides basic principles, rules and values, as well as the ethical and legal framework from which the company has to conduct itself in relation to its external partners in consortiums, the public sector and the general public, as well as international partners.

This code of conduct is in line with the core approach of AEEI to empower people through profits and its mission statement and assists AEEI to be a responsible corporate citizen through its ethical and legal approaches, taking into account the constitution of the Republic of South Africa, international guidelines on issues such as economic and environmental sustainability, anti-corruption and human rights.

These guidelines are intended for all people involved in AEEI as employees, advisors, consortium partners and business partners so that the basis of such interaction is entrepreneurially driven with a higher awareness of the law and moral standards in the business approach in whichever country AEEI does business.
