

Premier Food and Fishing first to list on the JSE this year

PREMIER Food and Fishing, a subsidiary of African Empowerment Equity Investments (AEEI) became the first company to list on the JSE this year. The company was listed on the Farming, Fishing and Plantations sector on the JSE's Main Board.

The executive management team, board members and representatives from other AEEI subsidiary companies joined the celebrations at the JSE on March 2.

SAMIR SABAN, CEO; Donna Nemer, Director: Capital Markets, JSE; Reverend Vukile Mehana, Chairman of Premier Food and Fishing; Nicky Newton-King, CEO of the JSE.

AFRICAN EQUITY EMPOWERMENT INVESTMENTS LIMITED AND PREMIER FOOD AND FISHING TEAMS WHO WORKED ON THE LISTING: Chantelle Ah Sing, Wakeel Mclachlan, Cherie Hendricks, Feroza Petersen, Samir Saban, Salim Young, Reverend Vukile Mehana, Khalid Abdulla, Takudzwa Hove, Tatenda Bundo, Rushaan Isaacs and Abdul-Malick Salie.

SALIM YOUNG non-executive director, Gianna Altini, Khalid Abdulla Deputy Chairman, Tom Altini and Reverend Vukile Mehana.

STEVE JAMES of Puleng Technologies; Khalid Abdulla of Premier Food and Fishing and Prejelin Naggan, Head: Primary Markets at the JSE.

DONNA NEMER, Reverend Vukile Mehana and Nicky Newton-King.

SAMIR SABAN, Salim Young, Reverend Vukile Mehana and Khalid Abdulla (all of Premier Food and Fishing).

JUNAID DHANSAY, Imtiaz Hashim, Fayaz Mohammed, all of Grant Thornton, with Sooren Ramdenee espAfrika, and Bernard Van der Walt with Jason Glass, both of Grant Thornton.